Investment process

The Fund aims to directly replicate the index composition via CDS index positions and cash collateral (typically investment grade European sovereign bonds with maturity <12 months). To minimise counterparty risk, CDS index trades are executed through regulated brokers and centrally cleared.

Investment objective

The Tabula European Performance Credit UCITS ETF (EUR) - Distributing aims to track the iTraxx European Performance Credit Index (ITRXPFL Index), less fees and expenses.

About the index

The ITRXPFL Index provides diversified exposure to European corporate credit, primarily investment grade. To emphasise credit risk and reduce direct interest rate risk, it takes exposure via two liquid credit default swap (CDS) indices rather than corporate bonds:

- 80% iTraxx Europe 5y (125 investment grade entities, equally weighted)
- 20% iTraxx Crossover 5y (75 sub-investment grade entities, equally weighted)

The index reflects the return from selling protection on the current series of each CDS index. It takes total market exposure of 300%, allocated in an 80/20 ratio to iTraxx Europe and iTraxx Crossover respectively, and is rebalanced monthly.

Performance

Fund performance is not available until a year after launch. Index values are calculated by IHS Markit. Past performance (actual or simulated) is not a reliable indicator of future performance.

Data: Tabula IM, 28 June 2019. Charts show the percentage of total CDS index notional. CDS index ratios in table reflect the notional relative to NAV. Weighted average CDS spread refers to the spreads weighted by the CDS notional to NAV ratio(s). Credit DVO1 is the expected change in NAV for a 1bp change in credit spreads. The estimated 12m yield calculation, which does not include fees and expenses, involves a number of assumptions and approximations and is not a guarantee of future returns.

Key risks

- No capital protection: The value may go down as well as up and you may not get back the amount invested.
- Market risk: The fund is primarily exposed to credit risk. Returns will suffer if there is a default, or higher perceived risk of default, among the entities referenced by the CDS indices, or a write-down ("bail in") of an entity's debt by financial authorities. The fund may also be impacted by other factors affecting the value of debt securities issued by those entities, including changes in interest rates and exchange rates. When selling CDS on subordinate debt, such debt may be subordinate to senior debt.
- Leverage: The fund uses leverage, so losses may be magnified.
- Liquidity risk: If there are insufficient buyers or sellers of CDS indices, the fund may not be able to match index exposure exactly and investors may not be able to buy or sell fund units. Neither the index provider nor the Issuer make any representation or forecast on the Liquidity of CDS transactions.
- Counterparty risk: The fund may incur losses if an institution providing services or acting as a derivative counterparty becomes insolvent.
- Credit risk: The issuer of a financial asset held within the Fund may not pay income or repay capital to the Fund when due.
